

Travel Reimbursement Handbook

Travel costs are reimbursed at the rates in effect on the date the travel began. Receipts are required for any single expense of twenty-five dollars or more. Requests submitted more than sixty days after the end of travel require written justification from the department head.